

BIOGRAPHY OF DEACON LARRY J. AND EVANGELIST MISSIONARY JACQUELINE B. WILLIAMS

Evangelist Jacqueline Williams was born in Louisville Kentucky, Deacon Larry Williams was born in Coffeerville, Mississippi. They both knew God had a special call on their lives early in life. Evangelist Jacqueline Williams accepted the call of God and invited Him into her life in 1987, Deacon Larry Williams accepted Christ in his life in 1988 and all things prior to that they count them but dung. Jacqueline was called into the ministry, and she was licensed as an Evangelist Missionary in the Church of God in Christ in Colorado Springs, Colorado in the year of 1991. Evangelist Williams is a woman who has been called out by God to be a carrier of His word. God has truly anointed, equipped, and gifted her to teach His Word.

Larry was licensed as a Deacon in the Church of God in Christ in Colorado Springs, Colorado in the year of 1992. Evangelist Jacqueline Williams and Deacon Larry Williams Sr., (Big Larry) has been married for 40 years, he is very supportive of Evangelist Williams in the ministry. They are the mother and father of one son, Larry J. Williams Jr. (Little Larry), and have a daughter through marriage Alyson Williams, and one grandson Ethan Williams, who is 11years old, who calls Evangelist Williams “Grammy”, and calls Deacon Williams Granddaddy. Evangelist Williams traveled throughout the United States and Europe in support of her husband twenty ½ years in the United States Army. Evangelist Williams is the Founder and CEO of Becoming Free Out-Reach Ministry Inc., a Non-Profit Corporation, 501 (C) 3, Company, since 2004, which is a community ministry that holds services and programs in the Jail, Nursing Home, Assisted Living, and Churches before COVID-19. Through the ministry she endeavors to assist churches to carry out the command of Christ as stated in Matthew 28: 18- 20, commonly called “The Great Commission”. She believes in reaching the lost, teaching, and strengthening the saved.

Becoming Free Out-Reach Ministry offers Workshops, Bible Study, Revivals, Retreats, Worship Services, and Leadership Seminars. In the year of 2023, the ministry will host its first couples retreat, “Re-Affirming Our Love” in Louisville Kentucky, which will be one of many to come. In the year of 2026, the Ministry will prayerfully open a Damascus Center, which will be a center that house the Reentry, Diversion, New Life, and Healing Programs, to which would include Employment, Wellness, and a 40 Day Journey experience to change the total person (body, soul/mind, and spirit). Evangelist Williams and Deacon Williams are full-time Federal Government employee, with the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Medical Center in Lexington, Kentucky, Evangelist Williams is the Union Local President of R5-184 and a National Executive Board Member of National Assoc. of Government Employees (NAGE), and on the National Veterans Affairs Negotiation Team.

Deacon Williams assists in managing the Lexington VA Virtual Care/Telehealth Program as the Program Analyst. Evangelist Williams maintains her evangelist license credentials under Rhema Church of God in Christ in Fayetteville, North Carolina under the leadership of Superintendent Larry Sr. and District Missionary Shirl Bellamy. Evangelist Williams is happy to experience God’s freedom by “knowing the truth and the truth shall make ye free” as stated in John 8:32.
